The staff of the Annual, the Tontoquonian, and our school magazine, the Focus, take pleasure in presenting the first yearbook of our new High School. They sincerely hope that each page will unfold many pleasant memories for you.

Co-operation and enthusiasm on the part of these editors contributed to the success of this year's Focus and Annual. Focus—Mary Patti and Pearl Bates. Annual—Sharon McDermott and Sharon Minichiello.

Vining, Arlene Benson, Ernestine Diotte, Pauline Meagher, Kathryn Stead. FOURTH ROW: John Secor, John Cherkofsky, Ruth Maxwell, Gail Farrell, Barbara Hagen, Judith Keller, Mary Leahy, Maureen Rynn, Marilyn Phillips, Carol Lowe, Donald Kroitzsh, Walter Lawrence.

MR. PEARCE, our principal, appears very happy to be in his new office.

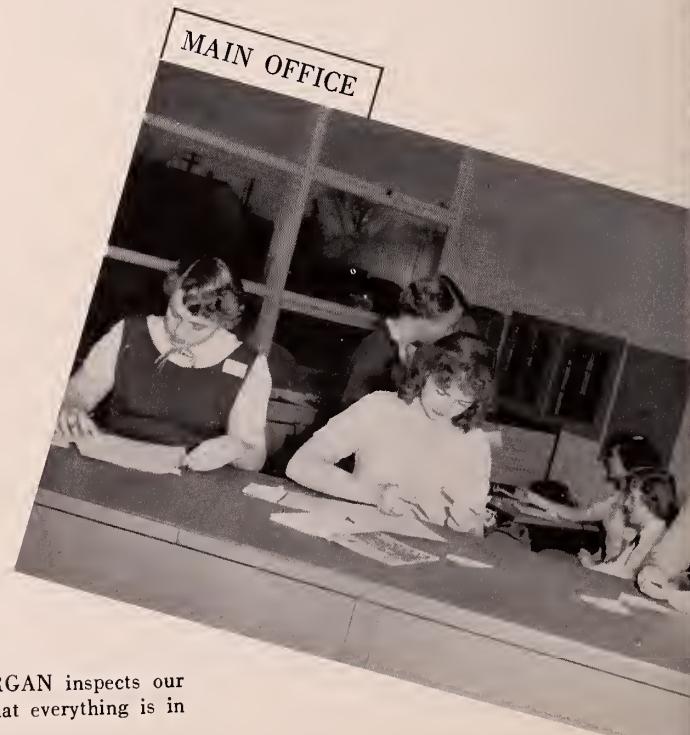

In addition to his many other duties, MR. YOUNG, Sub-master, takes time to straighten out a bus schedule.

Superintendent MORGAN inspects our new school to see that everything is in order.

Administration

Dean of Girls, MISS HAYWARD, extends friendly advice and assistance . . . be it problem or project.

The seniors have worn a path to our Guidance Director, MR. DOUCETTE'S door with last-minute problems about their futures.

Our Faculty

It's longer at 2:30 than at 8 A.M.

Class Will

Know All Men By These Presents:

That we, the class of 1956 of the Saugus High School, in the county of Essex, the home of *precocious children. State of Massachusetts, in the United States of America, being of sound mind and body, and having proved ourselves according to prescribed law not to be lunatics or infants, or both, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

Since it has been proved that the majority of this class has attained physically, if not mentally, the age of fourteen years necessary to the drawing up of a Will, we do forthwith bequeath and divide our imaginary estate in Utopia as follows:

To the Faculty: We leave Mr. Pearce worn out.

To Miss Hayward and Mr. Young, we wish we could leave the promise of no more session.

We leave Mr. Doucette after taking a great deal of his advice.

To Mrs. Hazel we leave a non-drying inkpen and an unbreakable pencil.

To Mr. Burns we leave a carload of comic books with the hopes that they might be read in place of Macbeth.

To Mr. Janusas is left the task of replenishing the positions on our football team recently relinquished by a grand bunch of fellows.

To the Commercial Girls: We leave the girls with the hope that some boys will become interested in the course.

To the Cafeteria: We leave the cafeteria to a second Dennis Murphy (if there is a second one) for an exclusive homeroom.

To the Juniors, hoping they'll be as photogenic as we were, we leave the Armand Studio Photographers.

To the Sophomores we leave a little strength to help them pass their Junior year.

We leave the Freshmen nothing, for the simple reason that we can't see them from our lofty pedestals.

To our Class Advisor: With fond regrets we leave Miss Fulton the one and only unrivaled and unparalleled adviser.

To the School: We leave the corridors, which we have conscientiously massaged with our dainty feet, newly-born echoes of our gently, modulated tones and polite replies to the teachers who have sometimes sorely tried our patience.

The following members of this august student body have ceased their habitual studying for a moment to make the following bequests:

John Rouleau leaves the freshman girls wondering who is next on his list.

Sandra Stirling leaves her bashfulness to a silly sophomore.

Barbara Callahan leaves her five foot two inch height to Patricia Carr.

Constance Kelty takes her beautiful voice with her after graduation.

Arlene Carr and Pat Boutwell leave Manning Bowl safely and are thankful they did.

Sharon Minichiello takes her sparkling personality with her to college, where we know she will be a great success.

Janice Gove bequeaths her stepladder to Mary Ellen Drew.

Jean Wormstead leaves the Monroe adding machine to the next left handed underclassman who has to use it.

Marlene Grady leaves, and with her goes her taxi service, she hopes next year's Cabbie has a bus.

Phil Boyle leaves his little black book to Marlon Brando.

Carole St. Martin leaves her remnants to the sewing class so that they can also learn how to make buttonholes.

Tommy McGrath leaves his "Droopy Draws" to some underclassman with big hips.

June Carpenter leaves her hammer and nails to the wood shop.

Allen Crabtree (Snooky) leaves his seat in the Cliftondale Pharmacy to any one lucky enough to get it.

Mike Termini bequeaths the educated thumb of his right hand to any boy who has a long walk to school.

Joan Peterson leaves her place in the State Theater to someone who can't afford to buy a ticket.

Dick Knight continues to leave the flash of yellow and a fifty-foot strip of rubber.

Carol Stevens leaves her red hair to anyone who can't afford a Henna Rinse.

Richard Doucette leaves his brother to next year's classes.

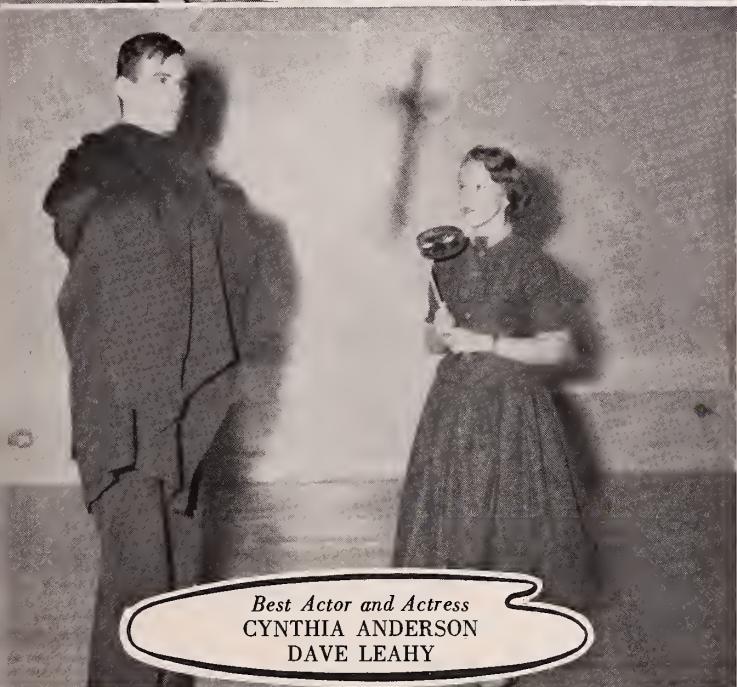

Janice Gurney leaves with whom?????

Richard Denham keeps us all wondering what happened back at the ranch.

Jackie Evans leaves her quiet ways to some needy clam.

Vin Perrillo's title of co-captain of the football team goes to some worthy junior who is capable of doing just as good a job.

Joanne Taylor bequeaths her home near the Army base to some wallflower.

Gladys Winslow leaves her list of lonely servicemen to Sandy Comstock.

Carol Rabbitt is kind enough to leave her nickname (Cookie) to a pound box.

S.H.S. is back to normal as John Whitcomb leaves.

Marjorie Marston thinks she will leave her questioning mind to Mr. Blossom for answers.

Carl Schmidt leaves Mr. Mitchell without a treasurer.

Rosemarie Sullo bequeaths her nickname (Butch) to a hound.

Peter Martin wills a foot in height to someone who wants to be a peeping Tom.

Cynthia Robertson leaves Miss Marison baffled as to where she should be and at what time.

Aveline Wingate will gladly leave her trips to Lynn for night school to someone who hungers and thirsts for knowledge.

Earnestine Diotte leaves the sewing class with a headache.

Ruth Gould leaves the sunny days that she never had for twirling in hopes that they will make next year's captain happy.

Doris Vining makes her get-away in an aqua and white convertible.

Being of sound mind, this we so file this first day of June, in the year one thousand, nine hundred, fifty-six.

AT SENIOR CLASS MEETING WE VOTED on our class colors and motto:

The colors are:

Blue and Silver;

The motto is: "The roots of the future are deep in the past."

Meeting's a

Proud and pleased are the members of the

Girls' Club Cabinet

who realized a great success in the Girls' Club Dance and their other activities this year.

"With a Song in Their Hearts," the members of the ## Girls' Glee Club

always have a smile and a song for everyone.

The Boys' Club Cabinet,

after much hard work, enjoyed a huge success in Talent Night this year. We are sure they will never forget the hit one of their Cabinet made as Andrea, the new Twirler.

"To Each His Own." Their own is the enjoyment they derive from singing in the

Boys' Glee Club

Visual Aids Club

members have a very important position in the new school, for they manage the controls for the inter-com system, among many other duties.

The National Honor Society

taken over this year by a new adviser, Mr. Doucette, appears to be doing fine (even though the meetings are at 7:45 in the morning!)

Pretty gowns and a comfortable setting provide the right atmosphere for these girls who serve as

Usherettes

at many of our school functions.

In addition to their many other duties,

Library Club Officers

Dave Allen, President (Absent from picture), Camella Colanton, Carol Slesinger, and Virginia Murphy take time to help Mr. Burns's English classes with some reference work.

Camera Club Officers

Allen McLellan, Joan Peterson, and President John Cherkofsky have their own pictures taken in the club's new dark room, a real help in developing all those Focus pictures.

Major problems became small issues when brought before our capable

Student Council

members, who were elected to represent the student body this year.

Dramatic Club Officers

President Pat Hayes, Carol Spooner, Vivian Shepard, and Bette Thornton take pride in knowing that one of the best Senior Plays Saugus has ever seen was presented this year.

The Junior Red Cross

members are to be commended for the marvelous charity work they do. They also serve as alternates for the Student Council delegates.

CAREER CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

takes a sincere interest in your future with interesting conferences, talks, and movies on careers.

Cheer

Leaders

Captain Joanna Domey, Pat Domey, Sandra Peterson, Marilyn Fusi, Sharon McDermott, Nancy Buckwell, Betty Ann Lawrence, and Carol Danahy carry on the spirit at our football and basketball games. With their many cheers, the enthusiasm in the grandstands never dies.

Enjoying their first snow storm, the

Ski Club Officers

President Bob McCullough, Aveline Wingate, Joanna Domey, and Jackie Tennant, enthusiastically look forward to coming trips.

Sahico Club

members appear perfectly happy, even without their notebooks or typewriters.

Twirlers

Band

The Saugus High School Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Mitchell, has certainly been an outstanding credit to our town and school this year. The New York trip highlighted the season.

Marblehead

(three photos on this page

By the looks of these pictures, Saugus put up strong opposition to all of the teams they played.

Oops!!
Sorry!!
That's the wrong man you're tackling, Leger.

We always thrill to see the pre-game program by the Band, Twirlers, and Cheerleaders which gives encouragement to the football team, and spirit to the crowds in the grandstands.

That's right Saugus, hang on!!

Almost over the line, Ned.

Dean Martin could never sing like this.

A good time was had by all, including the singing waiters and waitresses.

it's the "Know How"

Years of experience in serving thousands and thousands of Undergrads have given Kennedy's the "Know How," so important to all high and Prep school men. That's why — season after season — Undergrads come back to Kennedy's for their every clothing need.
